The Camp has an agreement with tour operators offering trekking and hiking tours in the Umbria Forest in the heart of the Gargano National Park, as well as: excursions to the Tremiti Islands; to San Giovanni Rotondo as a pilgrimage to the places where Padre Pio of Pietrelcina's lived; and to Monte Sant 'Angelo, for a visit to the Basilica of S. Michele Arcangelo.

- Dogs are allowed in the village prior compliance with the relevant regulation.

- Guests of the village will be provided with identification bracelet for faster and easier identification.

REGULATIONS

- The Management's permission, the delivery of the documents and its legal registration is mandatory for entry to the Holiday Camp. All the guests of the Camp will be equipped with an identification bracelet for a quick and easy identification.
- Campers are required to vacate the camping area by 12.00 am on the day of their departure. Should they remain later than the time allotted they will be required to pay the daily rate in full.
Bungalows must be vacated no later than 10:00 am. Arrivals must take place between 16.00 and 21.00.
- The Management reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to turn down unwanted or extra campers.
- Visitors are not allowed in unless they are authorized by the Management. They must turn in their identity documents. Should their visit last more than 1 hour they must pay the daily fee as per the price list. However, visiting is not allowed on Sundays.
- The area for tents or caravans will always be assigned by the Management, whose regulations campers are due to abide by.
- From 14.00 to 16.00 and from 23:55 to 7:00 any noise (including the assembly or disassembly of tents) that may disturb in any manner is strictly prohibited. Sound-producing devices must be kept at low volume and will remain off during hours of silence. The guests who cause any disturbance in any manner will be turned away from the Holiday Camp.
- The circulation of cars and motorcycles inside the Camp is forbidden from 23:55 to 7:00 every day and from 14.00 to 16.00 every day except on Fridays and Saturdays. In the remaining hours circulation is allowed only at a very low speed. At any rate, guests are asked to limit the use of cars and motorcycles to a minimum.
- Guests will have to take care of their personal belongings: the Management is not responsible for any theft or damage except for the items entrusted to it and accepted with delivery receipt.
- Guests must respect the vegetation, the hygiene and the cleanliness of the premises. They will have to take care of whatever the bungalows are equipped with. The Management reserves the right to seek compensation for damaged and broken items. In addition, upon their departure guests will have to leave their bungalow clean and tidy, after providing for the cleaning of pots and pans.
- Dogs are allowed in the Village under observance of the regulation dedicated.
Management reserves the right to evict without prior notice anyone who fails to comply with that regulation.
- Whenever electrical sockets are necessary their utilisation will be allowed following the Management's authorization and exclusively for use with lighting and refrigeration appliances. They must be grounded for their operation to be performed safely.
- It is forbidden to play with balls and mats in the swimming-pool and to behave in a manner that may cause disturbance to other guests. Guests are also required to follow the provisions of lifeguards, who will send away whoever does not comply with these rules.
- It is forbidden to leave camping bulky waste (ferrous material, furniture, refrigerator, chairs, etc.).
- It is strictly forbidden to light fires in the Camp.
- Should the Management perceive a failure to comply with these rules and behaviours as a source of harm to the harmony and spirit of the campsite, it will be authorised to expel from the Camp any misbehaving guest as unwanted.
