The province Ogliastra lies at the east coast of Sardinia and has particularly beautiful beaches, bays and above all the wonderful sea. Nearby, there is the heartland of the island, with its harsh beauty, its history and traditions. It's an auth paradise that has to be discovered! In this territory lie Camping ground Orri that offers the guests a familiar peaceful atmosphere.

The ground lies next to a wide sandy beach. You can swim in the sea or in the brand-new swimming-pool. Moreover there are quiet campsites, bungalows, mobil homes, frame houses, a restaurant, pizzeria, bar, bakery, children's playground, table tennis, tabletop football, bike rental, washing machines and, needless to say, modern and comfortable bathroom facilities. At 200mt distance, there is a tennis court.

BY SEA: Go out of Olbia following the signs for Sassari-Cagliari, after about 2 or 3km you will see the signs for Nuoro. Take that direction following the sign San Teodoro-Nuoro. This is a motorway and we advise you to stay within the 90km speed limit. After about 60km you will come to the industrial area of Nuoro (zona industriale). Be very careful to follow the indications for Nuoro on the right hand side because if you go straight on you will end up in Cagliari. Arriving in Nuoro follow the indications for Nuoro Ospedale and then Lanusei-Arbatax (you will go through a tunnel for about 1km). Continue along this road for about 40 minutes until you come to a junction on the left with indications for Villagrande Strisaili (just before this junction you will see an "Esso" petrol station on the right side). This road will take you through the wood of Santa Barbara, at the junction for Villagrande Strisaili follow the signs for Tortoli. Arriving in Tortoli just before the "fly-over" (a bridge which cross above the street you are driving), turn to right and follow the indication for the Lido di Orri (3km). Go ahead till identifying "Camping Orri".

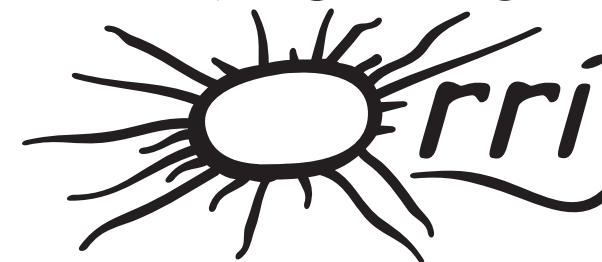

BY PLANE: Arbatax airport, connecting to various cities, is just 4 Km away.
